The entry level offers a large third living area complete with powder room, and a home office or potential 5th bedroom. The double garage offers extensive built-in storage, with internal access.

Upstairs the open plan family/living area and dining areas flow seamlessly from the large entertainer's kitchen with breakfast bar and butler's pantry, to the outdoor dining area. An additional second living area situated at the front of the home is ideal as a separate space to relax, watch a show or read a good book, all the while enjoying spectacular elevated views of the bush and beyond.

Tucked discreetly away off the main living areas, are three spacious double bedrooms all featuring double robes, complemented by a central main bathroom.

The statement master suite sits in its own wing of the home, and features a king size bedroom, his-and-hers walk-in robe and double ensuite.

You will love the lifestyle in the area, easy access to local schools, shops, public transport & all that North Kellyville has to offer.

Build your dream home or dream investment property, either way, this is a great opportunity and not to be missed.

- Fully registered block & ready for immediate construction
- Close to a range of quality schools
- Short walk to transport
